Where Ireland meets Italy

The ENIT Italian Fusion Festival returns this summer! Save the date and prepare for one of the most exciting event of the Summer 2018! A Beautiful & Italian Event of Music, Food, Arts, Visual Art, Dance & Design in Dublin.

Presented by ENIT-Italian National Tourist Board, the ENIT Italian Fusion Festival is an artistic and cultural event taking place at The Grand Social, Dublin, on the 8th of July 2018, from 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. The event organised by Radio Dublino, Ireland's only Italian-language radio programme, it aims to provide a platform for cultural conversations between Irish and Italian people in Dublin for a day of alternative fusion sounds, Italian food and visual art!

Spoil yourself to the notes of jazz, blues, trad, folk and rock music, enjoy artisan food and traditional Italian and Irish dances and musical instruments during the festival that celebrates the encounter between the Irish and Italian music and culture.

To complement the event a short video competition and Italian artisan food will be available to delight the palate of music enthusiasts in an informal setting.

Last but not least, a number of Vespas, the iconic Italian scooter, will be on display in front of The Grand Social, for the joy of all of the connoisseurs.
